Dear Professor Li,

On behalf of Massey University, it is my pleasure to invite you to lead a delegation from Beijing Forestry University to carry out a three-day visit to Massey University in early March 2026.

During the visit, we will discuss proposed collaborations, such as student and staff exchanges, talent cultivation and training, joint educational programmes and joint research opportunities in the related subject areas of both universities.

We understand the visiting delegation includes:

| Name      | Date of Birth | Gender | Position at BFU                                           |
|-----------|---------------|--------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
| LI Zhaohu | 06 JUL 1967   | M      | President                                                 |
| LI Liang  | 20 JUN 1984   | M      | Associate Dean, School of Ecology and Nature Conservation |
| LAN Chao  | 01 JUN 1969   | F      | Dean, School of Art and Design                            |
| ZHANG Duo | 05 FEB 1994   | M      | Principal Staff Member, International Relations Office    |

We understand that all expenses of this visit during your stay in New Zealand will be covered by the delegation.

Please note that any follow-up communications to this letter should be directed in the first instance to Ms Jevey Chamritski, College International Advisor, Office of Global Engagement (j.chamritski@massey.ac.nz).

We look forward to welcoming you and your delegation and to develop our collaboration in the near future.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Jan Thomas
